CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

Master Harvey Hord, five months old, is sporting his first tooth. It peeped through on Friday after Easter.

Three masked robbers boarded a Pullman sleeper at Sheffield, Ill., and robbed the passengers of $780 money and jewelry.

Gov. Woodrow Wilson has received his suitcase which he lost in Chicago. That is about all he got out of Illinois—Elizabethtown News.

The telephone block system recently adopted by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, has been put in operation at Bowling Green.

Judge Jeptha C. Johnson, of Greenville, of the law firm of Johnson & Wickliffe, died last week and his body was taken to Calhoun for interment. He was for many years a leading citizen of Calhoun.

Roosevelt seems to have picked up two more states and will get the delegates from Nebraska and Oregon. The eight delegates at large from Illinois also were conceded to him without a struggle in the State Convention.

Major Archibald Butt was a Kentuckian and received his early training as a reporter for the Courier-Journal, of Louisville. He had been abroad ostensibly for his health but really on a secret mission to Italy for the president.

One of the worst features of the Titanic wreck is the endless flow of lies told by the survivors. They've already had Maj. Butt dying in a dozen different ways, from being killed in a hard-to-hold fight with desperate men struggling to pass the women, to disappearing in a smiling goodbye, hat in hand, as the ship went down after the last boat was lowered.

Councilman G. L. Hord remembers the cholera of 1833—we mean, 1873—and tells this story on an old darkey who had been sent to Hopkinsville, Ky., to get some lime to disinfect his home.

"Well, Uncle Remus," said Mr. Hord, "where are you going?"

"Gee," replied the old darkey, "I'm a-wine to town to get some lime to make my house. Doctor Stephens is a-comin' tomorrow to assassinate (vaccinate) my whole family and if we ketch it then it won't be nothin' but ce-luloid (varioloid)."

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one broad disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Best Crop of Tobacco.

R. T. Shanklin, of the Allegree neighborhood, has the distinction of raising the finest tobacco crop in Todd county the past season. On six acres, containing 3,100 hills, he made 9,830 pounds, or 1,539 to the acre, selling this at $10.75 around, or $1,055.42.

Harnessing Falls Power.

Secretary of War Stimson is to decide what amount of water can be taken from Niagara Falls without impairing its beauty. The question came up as a result of an application to import electric power generated at Niagara Falls into the United States at Detroit.

Mississippi Flood.

Fifty towns have felt the effects of the flood and are under from 2 to 15 feet of water with no prospects of an early recession. A few lives have been lost. Relief is still being given to 70,000 people in the refugee camps. The river is falling at Reelfoot Lake and some people are returning to their homes.

Soldiers of Fortune.

The body of Leonard Groce, the American soldier of fortune, who with Le Roy Cannon, a Pennsylvanian, were shot to death in Nicaragua by the order of President Zelaya, during a revolution which unseated Zelaya, arrived at New Orleans last week from Boca Del Toro and will be forwarded to Hemstead, Texas, his former home. FIVE LIVES SNUFFED OUT

By Explosion In a Mine at Madisonville Ky., Sunday Night.

ONE WAS A WHITE MAN.

Rescue Work In Progress Yesterday But With No Hope.

Madisonville, Ky., April 22.—Joe Hollowell, aged 27, night pit boss and four negro miners were entombed in the mines of the Coal Coal Company, just at the northeast part of this city, Sunday night following an explosion which shook the city and was heard for many miles. It is supposed to have been an explosion either of gas or of powder.

No hope is entertained for the rescue of the entombed miners. Even if they were not killed instantly by the explosion, they probably will have been suffocated before the mine will be entered today.

The company is a new one and the shaft was sunk only a few months ago at the depth of 235 feet. It was owned by the Coal Coal Company, of which W. D. Coil is president. The mine usually works fifteen men at night.

Clarksville Taken In.

Clarksville, Tenn., April 22.—Negotiations which have been pending for two months or more, looking to a transfer of the ownership of the Clarksville Railway & Light Company and the property of the Clarksville Gas Company, were completed when the preliminary transfer took place. To-day the new owners will take charge of the properties. The purchasers are Montgomery, Clothier & Tyler, brokers, of Philadelphia. They are the same, it is said, who have recently purchased similar properties at Hopkinsville, Bowling Green, Owensboro and Frankfort, Ky.

THEIR MONUMENT.

Peasant and merchant and millionaire, Soldier and scholar and man of sea, Mourned by the world, they are resting where

No towering monument ever may be;

But the waves that go rolling above them there,

Where the pitiless fogs hover over the tide,

Shall never efface and shall never impair

The glory they gained when they manfully died.

With only an hour in which to pray Where Death had found them and would not wait,

They sent the young and the weak away,

Intrusting them to the whims of Fate;

Robbed of hope, they had strength to stay

While the helpless ones and the women went,

And the dark sea, rolling till Judgment Day,

Is their ever-enduring monument.

Peasant and merchant and millionaire,

Soldier and scholar and roustabout,

By the torch's fitful and feeble flare

They manfully swung the lifeboats out;

Whispering hopes that they might not share,

They claimed the right of the strong and brave,

And their fame shall live till the last men bear

The last of all heroes to his grave.

Christian and Jew and humble and high,

Master and servant, they stood, at last,

Bound by a glorious, brotherly tie,

When doubting was ending and hoping past!

They stayed to show how the brave could die,

While their helpless ones and the women went,

And the sea that covers them where they lie

Is their enduring monument.

CONVENTION ON MAY 29

To Select Delegates To The Baltimore Convention.

Cities Not Included In The General Order For County Conventions May 27.

Louisville, Ky., April 22.—The Democratic State Convention, at which four delegates from the State-at-large to the National Democratic Convention in Baltimore will be named, will be held in Louisville May 29. This decision was reached at a meeting of the State Executive Committee, held at the The Seelbach Saturday.

Except in counties containing cities of the first or second class, delegates to the State convention will be named at county or legislative mass conventions, to be held Monday, May 27. In the excepted cases, Jefferson county, for instance, precinct meetings will be held May 25 each precinct to name one delegate to a county convention to be held May 27, at which delegates to the State convention will be named. Congressional district conventions, at which two delegates to the National Convention from each congressional district in the State will be named, will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday May 29, two hours before the time scheduled for calling the State convention to order.

River Section Started.

Word was begun yesterday on the section of the Tenth street sewer west of Water street, which will run under the tracks of the I. C. Railroad. No agreement has yet been made with the railroad, but one of the engineers is here and said the railroad would arrange to support its own tracks. The section is about 200 feet long and calls for an excavation that will be near the surface where the sewer passes under the tracks.

Guarding an Impression. "Why doesn't that Parisian playwright accept those challenges?" "He's in a predicament. He is a tragic author and can't afford to let the public see him in anything as funny as a French duel."

Not An Experiment.

Paint Lick, Ky.—Mrs. Mary Freeman, of this place, says: "Before I commenced to take Cardui, I suffered so much from womanly trouble. I was so weak that I was down on my back nearly all the time. Cardui has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life. I can't possibly praise it too highly." You need not to be afraid to take Cardui. It is no new experiment. For fifty years, it has been found to relieve headache, backache, and similar womanly troubles. Composed of gentle acting, herb, ingredients, Cardui builds up the strength, preventing much unnecessary pain. Try it for your troubles, today.
